

Hall Cameras

Hall Cameras are one of Dublins oldest camera shops. Established over 40 years ago. They are experts in the supply of professional photography equipment. Their site is a content management system and a catalog system. They use this site as an extra shop window for their new and refurbished stock. The site also features a 360 panorama of the interior of the store. Click here to read the clients testimonial. Click on the picture of the site to visit.

The shop premises and an interview with Jack Hall were featured in the very popular R.T.E television program "What a Picture" with Podge Kelly.

Now established for over 40 years and long regarded as one of the country's most popular photo shops, a visit to 95 Talbot Street will help you make choosing a camera easier.
